Discovery • Innovation • Transformation

December 2021 Newsletter

In this issue, we share news about TC's move to Phase 4 for in-person data collection, information about the spring grant writing group as well as new funding opportunities. As the year comes to an end, the six offices that comprise the Research Infrastructure Improvement Committee (RIIC) are delighted to report that this year has been a very productive one, measured by increasing numbers of faculty grant submissions. Moreover, we have been partnering with Columbia leadership to explore interdisciplinary projects involving TC and Columbia faculty. We look forward to welcoming you back in January and assisting you launch innovative and transformative projects both at home and abroad.

Happy Holidays!

Research Workshops and Grant Writing Groups @TC

Grant Writing Groups@TC

The Office of the Vice Dean for Research is sponsoring a Grant Writing Group in Spring 2022. The Writing Group, which is open to all tenure-track/tenured faculty, professors of practice, and research scientists, is being led by Ann Rivet and Carol Hammer. The goal is to create a community of grant writers who are working on applications and who have identified a potential funder. Group meetings are bi-weekly over Zoom for 1.5 hours. Meetings will be scheduled at a time that is convenient to the members. An interest survey for this writing group will be sent out mid-December. If you have any questions in the meantime, please reach out to Ann at rivet@tc.columbia.edu.

The Office of the Vice Dean for Research

Student Research Awards: The Office of the Vice Dean for Research is now managing two student award programs to continue the College's tradition of supporting outstanding student research.

- The Dean's Grant for Student Research

TC students enrolled in a master's or doctoral degree program are eligible to apply for the Dean's Grant for Student Research which awards up to $2,000. Please consult the VDR website after Dec. 17 for information about application instructions. The submission deadline is February 15, 2022. If you have questions — after the information is posted on the VDR website — please send an email to: Dean's Grant for Student Research.

- The Research Dissertation Fellowship

Matriculated doctoral students, on track to receive dissertation proposal approval by June 2022, are eligible. Recipients are awarded $6,000 for tuition, living, research, or travel expenses. Please consult the VDR website after Dec. 20 for information about application instructions. The submission deadline is March 08, 2022. If you have questions — after the information is posted on the VDR website — please send an email to: Research Dissertation Fellowship.

Institutional Review Board

Return to In-Person Data Collection: The TC Institutional Review Board (TC IRB) office, in consultation with the Research Compliance & Safety Committee (RCSC), has moved to Phase 4 for in-person data collection (the resumption of in-person research on and off-campus). Visit RCSC for a list of its expert contacts.

The Research Compliance & Safety Committee created a Preparing Researchers for In-Person Engagement Information Packet available to the TC research community via Google Folders. Please review the "In-Person Human Subjects Research Requirements" website for in-person research requirements. If you have any questions about engaging in person, please consult the TC Preparedness contact list and contact the appropriate department. If you have questions about human subjects research, review the TC IRB website, or contact TC IRB directly IRB@tc.edu.

Featured Grants

Robert Wood Johnson Health Policy Research Scholar

Brianna A. Baker, PhD candidate, Counseling & Clinical Psychology, has been selected to participate in one of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's leadership programs, Health Policy Research Scholars. She will receive $30,000 per year for four years to support her research that is committed to helping build a more equitable healthcare system. In addition to participating in the training program, Brianna will conduct her associated research project under the guidance of Dr. Brandon Velez, Associate Professor of Counseling Psychology.

The Community College Research Center (CCRC) was awarded two grants.

The first award, in the amount of $2.6 million, was made by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation for the project, "Scaling Dual Enrollment Equity Pathways to College and Career Success." Principal Investigator Davis Jenkins, Senior Research Scholar, will co-direct the project with John Fink, Senior Research Associate. CCRC Director Tom Brock will oversee the project's work which seeks to expand efforts by community colleges and their K-12 partners in Florida and Texas to extend equity-focused guided pathways practices to dual-enrollment students from underserved groups.

The second award, in the amount of $75,000, was made by the Joyce Foundation to Principal Investigator Tom Brock whose project, "Inform College Policy Maker," is focused on providing federal policymakers useful evidence about topics such as community college funding, student loans and debt, transferring from two-year to four-year college, developmental education, and advising reform — all which are central to improving higher education access, support, and completion.
